

Invitation to Barna Koh's House by Teresa Koh

Some Seniors turned up at Barna's house to view her collection of antique bowls and the bags of new clothes that her granddaughter ordered online and which she wished to dispose of.

As we went through the items, Barna was enthusiastically sharing her childhood stories. It was a fruitful afternoon as I took the chance to discuss with the group on reviving our activities in the Church.

So do stay tuned to our broadcast.

Seniors' Bonding went "overboard" to Batam by Teresa Koh

On the morning of 21 September, twelve excited Seniors gathered at Harbourfront Ferry Terminal waiting to board the Majestic Ferry for a two day, one night trip to Batam.

It has been years since we had an overseas outing. This trip was made possible with the kind assistance of Evelyn Ling (the daughter of our Senior Elizabeth) who arranged for our ferry tickets, itinerary and even took great care of us and our needs.

It was truly a wonderful trip for everyone simply because everyone was so wonderfully accommodating and easy going. We were all like millionaires indulging in yummy but cheap seafood, berserk shopping and of course two hours of relaxing massage.

At Secret Spa
Waiting for a good massage.

We even had some fun at Balo Hotel Lounge sipping wine over the snacks we bought earlier. High on wine, Doreen (in black) got down to give leg massage to Teresa's (right) tired legs while Nelly pretended she was drunk (right).

Enjoying yummy seafood meals.

We were such a delightful group that the manager of the Kopak Jaya Kelong Seafood Restaurant where we had our lunch wanted a group picture for their Instagram!

We all returned home (though no longer millionaires) feeling recharged and satisfied with our bags of shopping.
